

SAINT THOMAS CHURCH

Fifth Avenue · New York City

The Order for Choral Evensong with the Choir according to the Book of Common Prayer 1662

WORSHIP is at the heart of our Church and its Choir School. The part of the building where the singers gather to lead our worship is named after them – the Choir. It is very similar to a Synagogue – the people face each other near the lectern for the reading of the Scriptures. At the heart of the daily office are the psalms from the Hebrew Scriptures – psalms are songs that explore all emotions and ways of life; joy and praise, sorrow and sickness, even anger and cursing. There are psalms about birth and marriage, the creation, war and peace, life and death. Thus, each day, like churches all over the world we consecrate time and space with our prayer. That is why the daily office is sometimes called the liturgy of the hours. Before the Reformation up to seven offices were sung each day; now the choir generally sings just one – usually evening prayer and sometimes morning prayer on some Sundays. Clergy and parishioners still regularly gather to recite some of the other offices, especially morning and evening prayer in the Chantry Chapel. Even when the choir are not present, the office is said – it is the Prayer of the Church – and we welcome you today whatever your reason for coming. As is still our custom from pre-reformation days, the choir sings most of the service and we invite you to be still and allow the music to lift the words and your own thoughts or prayers to God. We hope that you find the music an inspiration and an oasis of calm in a busy and troubled world. May the love and peace of Jesus Christ be with you.

THIS is the order for Evensong. The directions for posture are followed by the clergy and the choir but we hope you find them helpful. If you cannot stand or kneel, or simply wish to sit, that is absolutely fine and you do not have to join in the prayers if you do not wish to.

AFTER Evensong, there will be a short, said mass for those who wish to stay. All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

Please stand for the entry of the choir and ministers.

[Introit

Occasionally, on a Feast Day, the choir may sing an introit.]

A minister and the choir now sing the Opening Responses

O Lord, open thou our lips
and our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

O God, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;

*as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.*

Praise ye the Lord.

The Lord's name be praised.

The Psalmody

*The choir sing the psalms appointed. We sit for the psalms.
Each psalm ends with 'Glory be to the Father, and the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: World without end, Amen.'*

A Reading from the Old Testament

We sit for the first Lesson from the Hebrew Scriptures. This may be followed by a period of silent reflection.

[Office Hymn

If it is the eve of a Feast Day, we stand to sing a hymn.]

Gospel Cantic: Magnificat

We stand when the choir sing the Magnificat or 'Song of Mary'. This is from Luke's Gospel as is the song Mary sang when she visited her cousin Elizabeth.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him
throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy
hath holpen his servant Israel
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.

Luke 1.46-55

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

New Testament Reading

We sit for the second Lesson. This may be followed by a period of silent reflection.

Gospel Cantic: Nunc Dimittis

We stand when the choir sing the Nunc Dimittis or 'Song of Simeon'. This is also from Luke's Gospel and is the words used by the priest Simeon in the Temple in Jerusalem when Mary and Joseph brought in the child Jesus.

LORD, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen
thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared
before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Luke 2.29-32

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be;
world without end. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

We remain standing for the Creed which we all say together, facing East towards the High Altar – a custom of monastic communities.

I BELIEVE in God
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth:
and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge
the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic Church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Prayers

A minister and the choir sing these responses and the Lord's Prayer.

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

Where possible, we kneel.

Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
And grant us thy salvation.
O Lord, save the State.
And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.
Endue thy ministers with righteousness.
And make thy chosen people joyful.
O Lord, save thy people.
And bless thine inheritance.
Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Because there is none other that fighteth for us,
but only thou, O God.
O God, make clean our hearts within us.
And take not thy Holy Spirit from us

The Collects

The minister sings three short prayers which 'collect' our thoughts.

The Collect of the Day

The Second Collect

O GOD, from whom all holy desires,
all good counsels, and all just works do proceed;
give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both,
our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments,
and also that, by thee, we being defended
from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness;
through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Collect for Aid against all Perils

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord;
and by thy great mercy defend us
from all perils and dangers of this night;
for the love of thy only Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Anthem

The choir now sing a piece of music appropriate for the hour, the season or the feast day. We sit to reflect as they sing.

Prayers and Intercessions or Meditations

We kneel or sit for some brief prayers and intercessions led by a minister. This prayer may be used to conclude the service

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost,
be with us all evermore. Amen.

[Hymn

If it is a feast day or a weekend, we sometimes sing a hymn at this point.]

[Blessing

If it is a Sunday or a feast day there may be a blessing.]

Organ Voluntary

Except if the service is unaccompanied, evensong ends with organ music; if you are not staying for mass, please do not talk until you have left so as not to spoil people's enjoyment of the voluntary.

The Holy Eucharist

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up unto the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
People It is meet and right so to do.

The Celebrant says the preface

...evermore praising thee, and saying,

HOLY, holy, holy,
Lord God of Hosts.

Glory be to thee, O Lord most High.

Blessed is he that cometh
in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Where possible, we kneel.

The Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer, which concludes

...world without end.

The People respond AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

The Celebrant says

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

OUR Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread. (The Alleluia is omitted in Lent).

Celebrant [Alleluia.] Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. [Alleluia.]

OLAMB of God, that takest away
the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away
the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away
the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

Invitation to Communion

BEHOLD the Lamb of God: behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

People Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof, but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed.

Holy Communion

All baptized Christians are invited to receive Holy Communion. The Sacrament is distributed in one kind only at the Crossing. Gluten free hosts are available; please ask the priest.

The Post Communion Prayer

Celebrant and People

ALmighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship,
and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Celebrant blesses the people and then says the dismissal

People Thanks be to God.
