Lent

Lent is the forty-day season (excluding Sundays) that begins on Ash Wednesday and leads us toward Holy Week and Easter. It is a time when the Church slows down and prepares more intentionally for Jesus' death and Resurrection.

Lent is a penitential season offering a time for honest sorrow over our sins and the invitation for repentance. We acknowledge our sins so that we may stand before God as we are and receive his renewing mercy.

Christians traditionally observe Lent through prayer, fasting, and generosity toward the poor. Fasting is often connected to food, though not always. Its purpose is not self-improvement, but to imitate Christ and clear away distractions so we may more fully receive the joy of Easter.

Fasting from food may not be appropriate for everyone. If you choose to fast, do so thoughtfully and in a way that supports your spiritual and physical well-being.

You may notice a few differences in the service during Lent.

We use the color purple throughout much of the season. Purple has long been associated with royalty. In Lent, it reminds us that Christ's kingship is revealed most fully in his suffering and crucifixion. On Palm Sunday, we change to red in preparation for Jesus' death.

The time of Personal Confession is given more attention before the communal confession at the beginning. This allows us space to approach God in penance and receive his grace more soberly.

The Opening Acclamation changes from "Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit..." to "Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins. His mercy endures forever."

There is a Kyrie (Kyrie Eleison, "Lord, have mercy") in place of the Gloria ("Glory to God in the Highest...").

The word Alleluia (meaning Praise God) is not used during Lent in a kind of liturgical fasting that makes the Easter Alleluia all the more joyful.

The Final Blessing is replaced with a Solemn Prayer over the people.

The Prayers of the People are also a Special Form, emphasizing Lenten themes.

We are glad to walk this Lenten path together.

Celebrant

People

Welcome

The Celebrant welcomes the people and introduces the celebration before silent personal confession.

Confession

The Celebrant says

In order to prepare to receive God's forgiveness more fully, let us take moment to recall the sins which we have individually committed in a moment of silent personal confession.

Then, the Celebrant says

Now, together, let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive + you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Kyrie Sung by all.

The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Let us pray.

Silence is kept. The Celebrant says the Collect.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The People sit.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Lesson

Genesis 12:1-4a

A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

Now the LORD said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121 (verses 1-8)

Sung by the Choir.

Anglican Chant (Davies)

I lift up my eyes to the hills;
from where is my help to come?

My help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.

Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep;

The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand,

So that the sun shall not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
it is he who shall keep you safe.

The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth for evermore.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The People stand.

The Holy Gospel

John 3:1-7

The Priest reads the Gospel, first saying

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glo - ry to You, Lord Christ.

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

The Homily

Fr. Gonzalez-Grissom

The Nicene Creed

The People stand. It is customary to bow at the underlined words.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection + of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sung twice

Je - sus re - mem-ber me when you come in - to your king - dom.

Je - sus re - mem-ber me when you come in - to your king - dom.

The Prayers of the People (Special Form)

The Leader says

Let us approach the throne of grace with confidence as we offer our petitions to God, responding together with, "In your mercy, hear us."

God, we pray for our siblings around the world. May all those who bear your name follow your example. Where we are wrong, correct us. When we walk in love, affirm us. And give us courage to follow you without reservation.

O Lord,

People In your mercy, hear us.

We pray for this country and those in positions of public trust and responsibility, that you would give them courage to stand for truth and justice for all. And grant us insight to see where we are responsible to care for others.

O Lord,

People In your mercy, hear us.

We pray for our neighborhoods, our schools, and our local community. Help us to seek the well-being of our neighbors with the same dedication we give to our own needs.

O Lord,

People In your mercy, hear us.

God, you are neither surprised nor ashamed of our neediness, help us to see where we have caused pain to others or ourselves, and bring peace and deliverance to those who are suffering.

O Lord,

People In your mercy, hear us.

Creator God, help us care for the earth and all its creatures. Guide us to live responsibly and protect your Creation for future generations.

O Lord,

People In your mercy, hear us.

Eternal God, we place into your care those who have died+ in the hope of the Resurrection.
In this Lenten season, help us to remember that in death, life is not ended, but changed.

O Lord,
People In your mercy, hear us.

Let us offer our own prayers to God whether silently or aloud.

After the prayers, the Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

The Celebrant says

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Greetings

Anthem

Sung by the Choir.

Barry Rose

God be in my head and in my understanding,
God be in my eyes and in my looking,
God be in my mouth and in my speaking,

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant People

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who was in every way tempted as we are, yet did not sin; by whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus & Benedictus Sung by all.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People remain standing or kneel. The Celebrant continues the Eucharistic Prayer.

Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

Music: From New Plainsong; David Hurd (b. 1950). Copyright © 1981 GIA Publications, Inc.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." +

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." +

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify + us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

We invite you to pray the Lord's Prayer in the language of your choice. The Celebrant says

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Behold + the Lamb of God.
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
